

NALWO LUNCHEONS

Another monthly event followed by a luncheon in May.

Thursday, May 24 at 11:30 AM

Tour the historic Baker Hotel in downtown St. Charles with lunch at the hotel at Rox City Grill.

Tour: BAKER HOTEL - 100 WEST MAIN ST. (RTE. #64)

The Baker Hotel is a historic landmark in the Fox Valley in downtown St. Charles. It was built by Col Baker in 1928, heir to the Texaco Oil Company. “The Hotel Baker is my pride and joy” Col. Edward Baker. The Baker Hotel with its Rainbow dining room floor for dancing overlooks the Fox River. It has been refurbished in its grand style. You will not want to miss this special occasion to tour the public rooms and suites in the hotel.

Lunch: Rox City Grill: 12:30 PM, Baker Hotel, St. Charles

Parking: On Rte. #64 or in the parking garage which enters off #31(Geneva Rd), one block south of #64 (Main St.). Walk a short block to the hotel.

RSVP by May 23rd to Pauline Berberian: epber@sbcglobal.net or 630-587-6468.

NALWO welcomes all people associated with the laboratory and their families to this event.