

Fermilab Natural Areas

Presents:

HAWK TALK

A natural history of raptors including basic identification features

Presented by: Larry Miller in conjunction with the Hawk Migration Association of North America

Saturday, March 9th, from 10–Noon

Hosted in room Curia II which is located next to the art gallery on the second floor of Wilson Hall at Fermilab.

Signs will direct you from the first floor, front entrance.

This is a FREE event. All are encouraged to attend!