

Behind the Scenes at Fermilab & Employees Site Tours

Behind the Scenes at Fermilab

Wednesday, October 17, Noon to 1 p.m. • One West

Who keeps us safe? Meet the new fire chief and learn about the labs' first responders (fire department, paramedics and security).

With Chuck Kuhn and Bill Flaherty

Wednesday, January 23, Noon to 1 p.m. • One West

How to use the Users Office: If you are an administrative professional or user, learn how to make a visit to Fermilab go smoothly.

With Barb Book and Kappy Sherman

Employee Site Tours

CDF

See the Collider Detector at Fermilab (CDF), which recorded its final particle collision on September 30, 2011, as part of the Tevatron experiment.

Tuesday, September 25, Noon to 1 p.m.

20 people maximum

RSVP required via email: scharles@fnal.gov

Thursday, September 27, Noon to 1 p.m.

20 people maximum

RSVP required via email: scharles@fnal.gov

Technical Division

Visit the Industrial Area and see the facilities where the Technical Division builds and tests state-of-the-art magnets.

Tuesday, November 27, Noon to 1 p.m.

20 people maximum

RSVP required via email: scharles@fnal.gov

Thursday, November 29, Noon to 1 p.m.

20 people maximum

RSVP required via email: scharles@fnal.gov