Medical Comments: While lifting a 55 lb. object and putting it in a box. Felt mild pain in lower back 1-2 hours later. Given OTC medication and cold compresses.

ESH Comments: The employee, an engineer, was in the north Linac receiving area when the incident occurred. The employee was shipping a failed vacuum pump back to the manufacturer. The pump weighs approximately 55 pounds. The employee picked up the pump and placed it into a box for shipping; he felt no pain at that time. About 1 hour later, he went back to his desk and began to experience low back pain, which he attributed to handling the pump earlier. He went to the onsite Medical Office where he was diagnosed with lower lumbar strain. He was given OTC medication and cold compresses. The employee returned to work for the remainder of the day with restrictions. He was re-evaluated in the Medical Office the following morning and was returned to work with no limitations. First aid treatment only.
